Dear Sirs:

This is in response to your letter of October 2013 regarding the subject of Closed Captioning for our 501C-3 non-for-profit TV ministry. It is important to note from last year's enclosed financial statements, which you have in your records and a 2 page statement of this year's that most of the support monies are provided by Joan Able Amabile, founder and president of the ministry, and James L. Hilke the Treasurer and general assistant. Although there are a number of contributors to help promote and support this non-for-profit ministry, without the input of the two principals, it would be impossible to exist. We do not and have never drawn any salaries for ourselves, or paid any salaries to anyone including part time or temporary volunteers. To illustrate this fact we present the below figures:

Total Receipts- including the two above named principals according to 2012 tax return:
(See enclosed 2012 tax return) $31,723.00

Total Expenses $31,922.00

Donations by Joan Able (Amabile)-----	$12,000.00
Donations by James Hilke-----	11,700.00
Total -----	23,700.00
Net contributions by others -----	$8,025.00

Thank You,

Sincerely,

James Hilke – Treasurer

To Whom It May Concern:

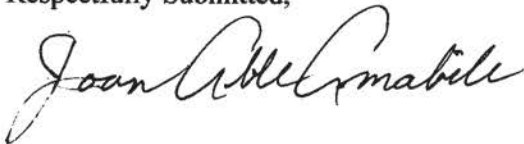

In response to your request to provide you with a list of companies who provide closed captioning services, and their associated costs, these are the three that we have found who are capable of taking our programming and providing both transcription and closed captioning for the least amount of money:

LeSea Productions	Jeff Elliott	317-773-5050	Captioning & Transcription (30 min) $150 per program / $7,800 per year.
Automatic Sync Technologies	Brent Roberts	877-278-7962	Captioning & Transcription (30 min) $170 per program / $8,840 per year.
New Day Captioning	Patrick Murphy	888-877-1584	Captioning & Transcription (30 min) $200 per program / $10,400 per year.

All of these companies offer their services for about $50 less per program if we are able to provide a complete transcript of the program. However the going rate for a stenographer is $70 per hour, so we would still be above $7000 per year if we chose that option. We also learned that CPC provides closed captioning software packages, but those start at prices above $7,800. We would still have to pay for the transcription work above and beyond that.

The financial documents that we have already provided the FCC with clearly show that we cannot afford to consider any of the options that we have found to Close Caption on our once per week program.

Respectfully Submitted,
